MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF UNITED STATES' MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO SERVE COMPLAINT AND SERVE BY COURT ORDER

The United States of America, by its undersigned counsel, hereby moves this Court for an order extending the time for service of the Complaint upon James A. Blazina, and for an Order allowing Service upon the mailing of the Summons and Complaint to (1) Post Office Box 805663, Chicago, Illinois
60680, an active Post Office Box maintained by the defendant,
James A. Blazina, (2) the address associated with that Post Office Box: 1515 East Central Road, Arlington Heights,
Illinois 60005, (3) Post Office Box 10449, Chicago, Illinois
60610, the address listed with the Illinois Bar Disciplinary Committee and (4) 1373 Foxdale Drive, Addison, Illinois, the street address associated with Post Office Box 10449.

As more fully set forth below, the grounds for this motion are that the United States was unable to obtain, in spite of its good faith efforts, a viable address for the defendant James A. Blazina within the 120 day period set forth in Fed.R.Civ.P. 4(m).

ARGUMENT

I. Factual Background

On February 1, 2000, the United States brought this civil action against the defendant to reduce to judgment certain unpaid federal tax assessments against James A. Blazina. The United States attempted to serve the defendant at his last known address at 5328 West Byron Street, Chicago, Illinois. (See Exhibit A & B). The defendant moved and left no forwarding address. (See Exhibit B: Affidavit of Process

Server). In the course of attempting to locate the defendant, it was learned that the defendant maintained a Post Office Box at the 60680 Post Office from which mail is regularly picked up. The United States requested and received from the United States Postal Service the street address associated with the Post Office Box maintained by James A. Blazina: 1515 East Central Road, Arlington Heights, Illinois. (See Exhibit C). The United States attempted to serve the defendant at the Arlington Heights address, however, the defendant was unknown at that address. (See Exhibit D: Affidavit of Process Server).

The United States has attempted to locate the defendant's address through a number of other sources as well. The defendant is a registered licensed attorney in the State of Illinois, however, at his most recent court hearing, the defendant failed to appear. (See Exhibit E). The defendant, is registered with the Illinois Bar Disciplinary Committee, however, the address utilized by the defendant with the Disciplinary Committee is listed as Post Office Box 10449, Chicago, Illinois 60610. (See Exhibit E). The street address associated with this Post Office Box is 1373 Foxdale Drive, Addison, Illinois.

Additionally, the defendant is not listed as a telephone customer, an electricity power customer, and is not listed in the Chicago area telephone directories. (See Exhibit E).

Accordingly, under the circumstances, the United States contends that its good faith, albeit unsuccessful, attempts to serve James A. Blazina constitutes "good cause" as to why service was not made within the period set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m).

Therefore, the United States requests that its motion to extend time to serve the Complaint be granted so that the United States be allowed an additional sixty (60) days beyond the original due date of May 31, 2000, so that service may be made upon James A. Blazina. Additionally, the United States requests that the Court order Service upon the defendant by mailing the Summons and Complaint to the defendant's current Post Office Boxes and address associated with the Post Office Box at the 60608 zip code Post Office. Further, we request that Service be by regular mail as James A. Blazina refuses to sign for registered or certified mail sent to his Post Office Box.

II. The Time for Service of the Complaint Should Be Extended For Good Cause

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m) provides as follows:

If service of the summons and complaint is not made upon a defendant within 120 days after the filing of the complaint, the court, upon motion or on its own initiative after notice to the plaintiff, shall dismiss the action without prejudice as to that defendant, or direct that service be effected within a specified time; provided that if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure, the court shall extend the time for service for an appropriate period. This subdivision does not apply to service in a foreign country pursuant to subdivision (f) or (j)(1).

"Rule 4(j) [now 4(m)] allows whatever time beyond 120 days 'good cause' requires." Sellers v. United States, 902 F.2d 598, 603 (7th Cir. 1990). Good cause necessitates a demonstration of why service was not made within the time constraints of Rule 4(j) [4(m)]. Moncrief v. Stone, 961 F.2d 595 (6th Cir. 1992).

Here, the United States attempted to serve the defendant at his last know street address after checking the Internal Revenue Service's records and a search of electronic databases. Additionally, the United States attempted to serve the defendant, an attorney, at a court appearance, however, the defendant failed to appear and the case was dismissed. Furthermore, the United States has attempted to serve the defendant at the street address provided with the defendant's active Post Office Box.

Additionally, the United States has searched for records of other addresses for the defendant, however, he is not listed in the Chicago telephone directory, he is not a telephone customer and he is not an electricity power customer.

In short, due to the difficulty in serving James A. Blazina, an extension of time is both necessary and consistent with the interests of justice.

III. Service Should Be Effected By Court Order

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(e) provides:

Unless otherwise provided by federal law, upon an individual from whom a waiver has not been obtained and filed . . . may be effected in any judicial district of the United States pursuant to the law of the state in which the district court is located . . . for the service of the summons upon the defendant in an action brought in the courts of general jurisdiction of the State.

Illinois state law Chapter 735, 5/2-203.1 provides:

[i]f service upon an individual defendant is impractical under items (1) and (2) of subsection (a) of Section 2-

203, the plaintiff may move, without notice, that the court enter an order directing a comparable method of service."

Section 2-203(a) provides:

service of summons upon an individual defendant shall be made (1) by leaving a copy of the summons with the defendant personally, (2) by leaving a copy at the defendant's usual place of abode, with some person of the family or a person residing there, of the age of 13 years or upwards, and informing that person of the contents of the summons, provided the officer or other person making the service shall also send a copy of the summons in a sealed envelope with postage fully prepaid, addressed to the defendant at his or her usual place of abode.

In the instant case, the provisions of 5/2-203.1 are satisfied because locating the defendant or his place of abode have been impractical. The defendant maintains Post Office Boxes, however, the addresses associated with those Post Office Boxes are neither his residence nor his business address. The defendant has not appeared in court, despite a hearing where he was the attorney of record. The defendant is neither a telephone customer nor an electric power customer.

Since the defendant is a licensed attorney in the State of Illinois, the United States should be able to serve the defendant in accordance with the Illinois Supreme Court Rules.

Rule 765(a) of the Illinois Supreme Court Rules provides:

Service of any notice, complaint, petition, subpoena, pleading or document in proceedings under these rules may be made in any manner authorized by the Code of Civil Procedure or rules of this court or by delivery of any such notice, complaint, petition, subpoena, pleading or document to the address listed on the master roll for the attorney.

The defendant has listed Post Office Box 10449, Chicago, Illinois 60610 as the his registration address. (See Exhibit E). The Committee Comments to the above section note, "the revised rule allows for service to be perfected by delivery of an item to a registration address, resources presently committed to serving recalcitrant attorneys could be devoted to conducting investigations and reducing unnecessary delay in processing charges."

Consequently, the United States moves this court to order service of process be effected upon the mailing of the Summons and Complaint to (1) Post Office Box 805663, Chicago, Illinois 60680, an active Post Office Box maintained by the defendant, James A. Blazina, (2) the address associated with that Post Office Box: 1515 East Central Road, Arlington Heights, Illinois 60005, (3) Post Office Box 10449, Chicago, Illinois 60610, the address listed with the Illinois Bar Disciplinary Committee and (4) 1373 Foxdale Drive, Addison, Illinois, the street address associated with Post Office Box 10449. Service upon the defendant's Post Office Box is anticipated to give the defendant actual notice because the box is, in fact, active.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the United States requests that its motion be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

SCOTT R. LASSAR
United States Attorney

DECLARATION OF ATTORNEY TURANCHIK

I, Stephen J. Turanchik, pursuant to the provisions of 28
U.S.C. §1746 certify that:

1. I am the Trial Attorney for the Tax Division of the United States Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., to whom primary responsibility for this case has been assigned.

2. I conducted a search on electronic databases of Lexis-Nexis and Westlaw that revealed the defendant's current address as: Post Office Box 805663, Chicago, Illinois 60680.
This address was last updated in the electronic database as of January 1, 2000. The prior address for the defendant is listed as 5328 West Byron Street, Chicago, Illinois 60641.

3. Through discussions with employees at the United States Postal Service, I learned that Post Office Box 805663, Chicago, Illinois 60680, in the name of James A. Blazina is in active use.

4. The United States has attempted unsuccessfully to serve the defendant at the following addresses:

1660 North LaSalle Drive, Apt. 709
Chicago, Illinois 60614
(address indicated on driver's license)

5328 West Byron Street
Chicago, Illinois
(street address indicated on electronic database search)

1515 East Central Road
Arlington Heights, Illinois 60005
(address associated with active Post Office Box)

5. The address of James A. Blazina maintained with the Illinois Bar Disciplinary Committee is Post Office Box 10449, Chicago, Illinois 60610.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed at Washington, D.C., this 5th day of June, 2000.
